5. What the Columns mean:

Description – The name of the scholarship or bursary you are eligible for Status – When the status says “in-process” it means you have successfully applied to that award. We have accepted your application and will review it.

Additional Requirements – Some scholarships and bursaries require you to submit additional requirements. These include, but are not limited to, an essay, faculty reference form, various point form lists or proof of extra-curricular/volunteerism. Once you have completed the additional requirements documents you will submit them directly online.

This completes the guide on how to check which awards you are eligible for. Please contact awards@cambridgencollege.ca for any questions or concerns. Thank you.
